A TALE OF THREE DREAMS

I want to tell you the story of three dreams: two of them actual, literal dreams in the night. Both of them came to Reinhard Bonnke in two very different seasons of life; the first when he was very young, just starting out in ministry, and the other near the end of his ministry.

The first dream is well known, the other is not. But both, I believe, are highly prophetic. These two dreams are like golden bookends that encapsulate the life and legacy of one of God's greatest generals. But moreover, they lead us to a third dream that I want to share with you — my dream.

Dream One

"Africa Shall Be Saved"

One night, in 1972, Reinhard Bonnke had a dream, where he saw a gigantic map of the African continent. And as he watched, it became washed in the precious blood of Jesus — from south to north and from west to east. Then he heard a mighty voice cry, "From Cape Town to Cairo, all Africa shall be saved!" and he woke up. He was shaken. What a wonderful dream! But then as his logical German brain caught up to him, he thought to himself, "My ministry has no impact in this tiny little nation.

Now I hear all of Africa will be saved? Something is wrong. I must have eaten some bad bananas." But Reinhard had that same dream the next night and the next and the one after. And after night number four, he said to his wife, "Anni, I think God is trying to tell me something." In response to that dream, Christ for all Nations was born. Reinhard Bonnke, together with his wife Anni and their small children, embarked on an adventure that would see millions of people come to Christ and multitudes more empowered and equipped to preach the gospel. "Africa Shall be Saved" became a battle cry for Reinhard Bonnke and a phrase that came to be synonymous with his life and the ministry of Christ for all Nations. During Reinhard's life, his ministry saw more than 75-million people come to Christ in a thirty-year window; between 1987 – 2017 and by the time he died a couple years later, that number had reached 79 million — one million salvations, on average, for every year of his life! What an amazing legacy!

Dream Two

"Dream Two A Forerunner"

In 2012 Reinhard Bonnke and I were both preaching at the BFP Annual Convention in Germany. In the night he had a dream that he shared with me the next morning at breakfast and then repeated that evening at the conference. He said that his dream was so real, he wasn't sure if he was asleep or awake. In fact, he didn't know if it was a dream or a vision. He said he was projected into the future where he overheard two personalities talking. They were discussing amazing things going on in the world at that time.

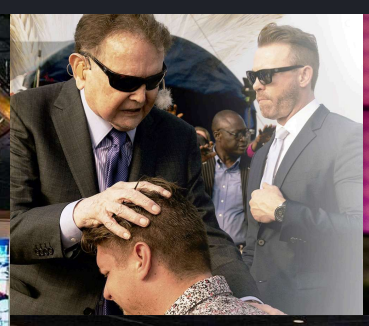
But there was one thing of particular interest. One of the voices asked, "What ever happened to Reinhard Bonnke?" The reply was this, "Oh, Reinhard Bonnke was just the forerunner of a whole generation of Holy Spirit evangelists." Then he woke up. Reinhard lived with an awareness that he needed to impart something to the next generation for the sake of this great coming harvest. That's why he wrote books, produced media, held Fire Conferences and preached relentlessly. During the last few years of his life, one of his favorite themes was, "Passing the torch to the next generation." He preached about it often as he visited many countries for the last time. And this is where we come to my dream.

Dream Three

Daniel Kolenda's Dream

In 2017, the Lord began to speak to me about the upcoming decade as a "Decade of Double Harvest." I had no idea at the time that Reinhard Bonnke would pass away less than a month before the beginning of the decade.

What I felt in my heart is that over the next ten years or so, God would double the number of souls saved to over 150 million. In other words, He would do in the next ten years what had taken the previous 30 combined! It would be a supernatural acceleration of the harvest in this critical hour of history. But that double harvest is not the dream. That acceleration will simply be the catalyst for an exponentially greater harvest, perhaps the greatest evangelistic movement the world has ever known. It will propel "a whole new generation of Holy Spirit evangelists" into the fields before Jesus returns!



Now you might ask, how is this possible? Do you plan to have larger crusades? Or more crusades? Well, while we're on the subject, the answer to that is actually, Yes! I do believe we are going to see the largest crusades we have ever seen. The Lord has given us some very specific direction on that, and we are already seeing a stirring on the ground in Africa as never before. Also, we are dramatically increasing the number of crusades in Africa. The most we have ever conducted in a year is 8 crusades. In 2020, the first year of the Double Harvest Strategy, we have increased to 13 crusades!

The next year we will increase to 23 crusades and the following year we will work to nearly double it again with 43 crusades — in one year! These are CfaN Gospel Crusades in Africa where I will personally preach. As exciting as all of this is, the Lord showed me that the exponential increase would come, not simply through addition (CfaN conducting more crusades and bigger crusades), but through multiplication. The two words that the Lord gave me, the words that are ringing in my heart, the keys to seeing this dream of a world-wide harvest become reality are these: MULTIPLY and COLLABORATE!

"From dreams to fulfillment..."

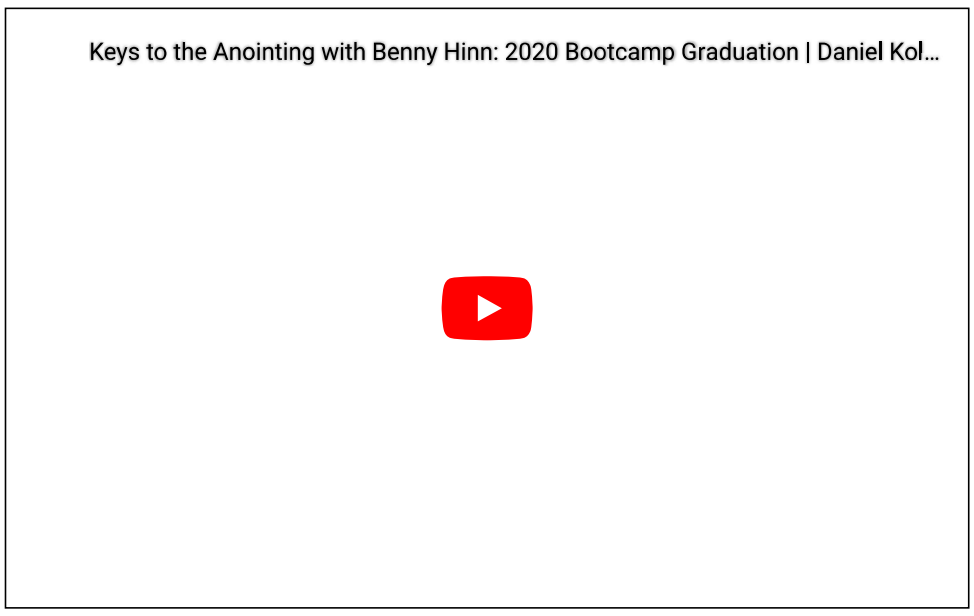
EVANGELISM
BOOTCAMP

2020 saw the graduation of our first Evangelism Bootcamp students. Daniel Kolenda and guest speakers trained more than 50 evangelists at our ministry headquarters in Orlando, Florida! They attended class, pressed in to the presence of God, organized and led outreaches around the Orlando area, worked with local churches, and gleaned from renowned guest teachers, in addition to Evangelist Daniel Kolenda, and key members from the Christ for all Nations team. Over 50, incredible men and women of God, from around the world, successfully made it through the intense training. From September 15 to October 2, 2020, the graduates traveled to Tanzania for their Bootcamp Initiation tri and to put their training to use in preaching the Gospel!



CALLING ALL EVANGELISTS
for the Decade of Double Harvest
by Daniel Kolenda.

Over the next ten years, we will train, equip and launch 20,000 evangelists for mass evangelism all over the world. Soon a two-year training program will be a prerequisite for the Bootcamp, but right now we are looking for an elite group.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR AFRICA

Christ for all Nations, called for an International Day of Prayer for Africa, on 6 November 2020. The goal was to circle the globe with prayer in 24 hours! Starting in the morning, and working our way around the world, each of our CfaN offices hosted a live prayer session on Facebook and Youtube, and concluded with a special broadcast from our CfaN Headquarters in Orlando, Florida.

Evangelism

The core concern at CfaN is for the gospel to be proclaimed without compromise in Africa. We have not yet fulfilled our calling to take the Good News "From Cape Town to Cairo". Millions of Africans have never heard the Gospel in such a way that they could really understand it and make a conscious decision for or against it.

Conflict in Africa

The African continent is made up of 54 countries – and 14 of them are currently experiencing violent conflicts. War and violence have ongoing, generational effects, causing famine, migration, economic disaster, and the personal, individual suffering of those forced to endure these conflicts.

North Africa

North Africa is still firmly in the grip of Islam. Repression of people of other faiths and reprisals against Christians are everyday occurrences. The work of missionaries is made very difficult and conventional evangelistic outreach is virtually impossible in many areas.

Humanitarian crises

When infrastructure is poor, natural disasters can have an exponentially greater effect. Africa also carries the greatest burden in numbers of refugees, due to climate change, economic need and conflicts.

Covid-19

Travel and gatherings have been severely impacted by COVID-19, putting obstacles in the way of preaching and pastoral care. African countries that were already struggling with high levels of poverty and unemployment have been dealt severe blows by the lockdowns.

Gospel campaigns

The Lord has been leading us to use new strategies to preach the Gospel to entire regions at a time, but the mass Gospel Campaigns CfaN is known for are still a vital part of that. There are now several different aspects to this evangelism strategy, and we believe we are about to see an exponential explosion in the number of evangelists in Africa, conducting Holy-Spirit-led Gospel meetings and bringing millions to the Lord.

DANIEL KOLENDA LIVE

During the early weeks of the global pandemic, Evangelist Daniel Kolenda went live on Facebook each week to bring encouragement and strength by sharing from the Word, sharing uplifting times of praise and worship, interviewing special guests, and praying for the needs of those watching live.

Slaying Dragons

The supernatural realm is very real, and it directly impacts our day-to-day lives. Often spiritual battles lie behind our everyday struggles. Though the spiritual world is invisible, we are not unaware of the enemy's schemes. Through God's Word and the power of the Holy Spirit we are equipped to be more than conquerors through Christ!

The Invitation and Need

There are very few things in life that are truly worthwhile. As John reminds us, "...the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever" (1 John 2:17). What is the will of God? Peter makes it clear that God is, "...not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (2 Peter 3:9). There is nothing dearer to the heart of God than souls. Daniel said, "...Those who turn many to righteousness, [will shine] like the stars forever and ever" (Daniel 12:3). If you've been looking for something to invest in that pays eternal dividends – look no further. I cannot imagine a better investment in this world!

Leonard Ravenhill said, "The opportunity of a lifetime must be seized in the lifetime of the opportunity." I believe the harvest that lies before us is not only the opportunity of a lifetime, but the opportunity of the ages. I want to invite you to stand with us and seize this moment for Calvary's sake! I am asking you to make a commitment that for the next decade, you will stand with Christ for all Nations to see this massive harvest come in. Would you stand with us?

pressing forward with all the grace God has given us, but we need your prayers for the CfaN team and our families, spread out across the world, with offices in twelve countries and six continents. Become part of our intercessors group.

harvest fields. Maybe you know someone who is called into mass crusade evangelism. I know no better way to launch them than through the CfaN training and Bootcamp. You can find out more about training here: Launchpad.cfan.org.
